Infomercial Spokesperson:

Have you ever visited Europe?

Have you ever dreamed of visiting Europe but you feel as if you just will not fit in?

Well have I got a product for you!

It's called Qwikeesy hair and it's the perfect solution for fitting in, in Europe!

(Walk over to two blown up Before and After pictures – one with an American girl laying on the beach while European girls give her dirty looks then next to it is her with armpit hair and hairy legs and the girls pulling up chairs and talking to her. The other picture is of an American girl walking down the street and European guys not paying attention to her or looking grossed out. Then next to it, the same girl strolling down the street with hairy legs and armpit hair while the guys fall all over her.)

Infomercial Spokesperson:

Both these ladies traveled to Europe, felt uncomfortable, and out of place around the locals because all the other women had beautiful luxurious armpit and leg hair. They came to me in dire need of help and here is what I did for them and want to do for you! I introduced them to Qwikeesy. Qwikeesy is an all natural hair extension designed especially for armpits and legs.
