

CURRICULUM VITAE - FY 2005

Lynda Dee Dixon, Ph.D.

FACULTY POSITION

Professor

Department of Interpersonal Communication
School of Communication Studies
Bowling Green State University
lyndad@bgnet.bgsu.edu

Home

Post Office Box 134
321 East Main
Portage, Ohio 43451
419.686.0475 (telephone and fax)

I. ACADEMIC DEGREES

- Ph.D. Communication, University of Oklahoma, Norman, OK
- M.A. English, Southwest Missouri State University, Springfield, MO
- B.S.Ed. English/Speech, Southwest Missouri State University

III. ACADEMIC POSITIONS

A. Administrative Positions

- July 2002 Interim Associate Dean, Graduate College research development, Graduate Council, Committee, diversity and recruiting, STARS (assisting in recruiting, planning, training, conferences), GradSTEP (internal committee), appointment of graduate faculty to doctoral committees, grade/academic honesty appeals, thesis/dissertation topic approval, marketing strategy team leader, back-up Student Records Team supervisor, facilitator Curriculum and Degree Program subcommittee of the Graduate Council, Distinguished Dissertation/Thesis Committee, registration problem cards, excess credit load, team member for assistantship/funding decisions and student needs, Winifred O. Stone Stipend Award committee, Presidential Scholarship, dissertation/thesis submission, resource person distance-education, assistantships across the university, BGSU Research Conference, and the following committees: SAAC, FRC, HSRB, EOC, CTLT, Associate Deans Council, American Culture Studies Advisory Board, Marketing Committee.

2000 January
to 2002 July

Faculty Associate (2000 January to 2001 August at .25 FTE and 2001 August to 2002 July at .50 FTE), Graduate College, assisting in the duties of the office of the Associate Dean of the Graduate College: facilitated ad hoc ESL Graduate Council Committee; facilitated GradSTEP Internal Support Committee and GradSTEP External Faculty/Staff Advisory Committee; facilitated Distinguished Dissertation/Thesis Award; facilitated Winifred O. Stone Stipend Award Faculty Committee and assisted awarding of budgets to programs; liaison for the Graduate Council Curriculum and Degree Programs Committee; continued implementation and planning of diversity initiatives, including recruiting trips; assisted with grant application for Project Search and Presidential Scholarship; assisted with conference panel project with Graduate College personnel, faculty, staff, and graduate students; appointed faculty to serve as external members on graduate student committees; participated in student probation decisions; directed graduate student appeals; participated in various other student decisions (incomplete grade appeals, registration problems, extension of deadlines for student work, etc.); responsible for projects and team activities; assisted on new forms for certificate programs; developed diversity initiatives; co-facilitated Strategic Planning for the Graduate College Committee and Certificate Program Committee; processed new graduate faculty appointments; requested faculty to serve on graduate student committees.

1998-2001

Graduate Program Coordinator (.50 FTE) (Ph.D. and M.A.), School of Communication Studies; wrote new Arts and Sciences reports on use of technology report, enrollment plan, and recruitment plan for previous year; assisted faculty in new course development; wrote or co-wrote applications for Winifred O. Stone Fund (spring 2000, awarded 2nd highest amount; fall 2000 tied for highest ranking) and Ohio Board of Regents “set-aside” funding (unsuccessful); recruited through conferences and campus visits (Oklahoma); developed revised brochures (1998-2001) and student handbooks (1999-2001); coordinated colloquium schedule and speakers; managed applications, admission, and funding (chairing the Graduate Program Committee and presenting decisions for faculty approval); oversaw faculty committee for the restructuring of two programs (mass communication and interpersonal communication with curriculum modifications into one Ph.D. and M.A. graduate program, 1998); assisted GradSTEP directors during the week of training in our program; chaired ad hoc Graduate Program Committee and facilitated in the restructuring of Interpersonal Communication and Mass Communications programs to the graduate program in Communication Studies

- 1998 Graduate Program Coordinator (Ph.D. and M.A.), two programs M.A. and Ph.D., Interpersonal Communication and Mass Communication, in the School of Communication Studies, Bowling Green State University
- 1989-1991 Director of Undergraduate Advising, Department of Communication, University of Oklahoma
- 1989-91 Planner/co-planner annual campus-wide International Teaching Assistant Training Seminar, University of Oklahoma
- 1970-1973 Chair, English Department, O'Fallon School District (chair, co-chair and co-author of new curriculum)

B. Teaching Positions

- 2003-present Professor, Department of Interpersonal Communication, School of Communication Studies, Bowling Green State University (promotion to professor 2003)
- Affiliated Faculty, American Culture Studies 2003
- 1999-2003 Associate Professor, Department of Interpersonal Communication, Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, OH (tenured 1999)
- 1996-1999 Associate Professor, Department of Interpersonal Communication, Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, OH
- 1994-1996 Assistant Professor, Division of the Arts (Communication), Indiana University–South Bend, South Bend, IN
- 1992-1993 Visiting Assistant Professor/Lecturer, Division of the Arts (Communication), Indiana University, South Bend, IN
- 1991-1992 Assistant Professor, Department of Communication and Journalism, Consultant to the Center for Indian Youth Programs,

School of Medicine, University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, NM

1989-1991 Visiting Assistant Professor/Instructor, Department of Communication, University of Oklahoma, Norman, OK

OTHER TEACHING

Adjunct Instructor, English, University of Science and Arts of Oklahoma, Chickasha, OK

Public School Teacher, English, journalism, drama, Purcell, OK (middle school), Wanette, OK (secondary)

Adjunct Instructor, University of Sciences and Arts, Chickasha, OK

Full-time Instructor (1 year), Adjunct Instructor (3 years), Communication and English, Elizabethtown Community College, KY

Public School Teacher, English, speech, O'Fallon, MO (secondary)

Chair/Co-chair, English Department, O'Fallon High School
Co-author, Revised English Curriculum
Grades 9-12,

Warrenton, MO (elementary and secondary)

Graduate Teaching/Research Assistant, English, Southwest Missouri State University, Springfield, MO

Public School Teacher, English, Springfield, MO (secondary)

III. TEACHING EXPERIENCES/ACADEMIC SERVICE

A. Teaching Experiences

1. Undergraduate Courses

Bowling Green State University

IPC 490, Problems in Communication (most semesters)

IPC 489, Internship (most semesters)

IPC 444, Health Communication (Fall 2004, Spring 2004, Fall 2003, 2001)

IPC 406, Native American Communication (Spring 2004) [I designed and taught this class.]

IPC 406, Health Communication (Spring 2000; Fall 1998; Spring 1998; Fall 1997) [I developed this new course.]

IPC 307, Organizational Communication (Summer 2002; Summer 1999; Fall 1996)

IPC 203, Small Group (Summer 1998; Spring 1998)

Indiana University-South Bend

Health Communication (Fall 1995; Fall 1994; Spring 1993) [I developed this course with undergraduate and graduate students crosslisted with nursing.]

Business and Professional Communication (Summer 1996; Spring 1996; Fall 1995; Fall 1994; Spring 1994; Summer 1994; Fall 1993; Spring 1993 x 2; Fall 1992 x 2)

Small Group Communication (Summer 1996; Spring 1996)

Advanced Interpersonal Communication (Spring 1996; Spring 1994)

Organizational Communication (Fall 1995; Fall 1993)

Public Speaking (Summer 1994; Spring 1992 x 2)

University of New Mexico

Small Group Communication (Summer 1992; Fall 1991; Summer 1991)

Intercultural Communication (Spring 1992; Fall 1991)

Organizational Communication (Spring 1992; Fall 1991)

University of Oklahoma

Intercultural Communication (Spring 1991; Fall 1990; Spring 1990; Fall 1989)

Small Group Communication (Spring 1991; Fall 1990; Spring 1990; Fall 1989)

2. Undergraduate-Graduate Courses

Bowling Green State University

IPC 490/COMS 586 Diversity in the Classroom (Summer 2004) [I developed and taught this workshop.]

Indiana University-South Bend

Intercultural Communication (Fall 1995; Fall 1994; Fall 1993) [I developed this new course; it was crosslisted with Education M.S. students.]

3. Graduate Courses

Bowling Green State University

COMS 685, 698, 785, 799 (most semesters)

COMS 600, Introduction to Communication Studies (Fall 2004, 2003, 2002, 1999) [I redesigned the introductory course for the restructured graduate program.]

COMS 729, Native American Communication (Summer 2004) [I designed and taught this special topics class.]

COMS 656, Health Communication (Spring 2002)
COMS 621, Preparing Communication Faculty (Spring 2000) [assisting Dr. Julie Burke as an overload]
COMS 729, Culture and Health Communication (Summer 2001)
IPC 729, Special Topics: Intercultural Communication (Summer 1998) [This is now COMS 657, Intercultural Communication, co-authored with another professor.]
IPC 680, Cultural Conflict in Health Settings (Summer 1997)
IPC 640, Health Communication (Spring 1999; Fall 1996)
IPC 628, Organizational Communication (Spring 1997)
IPC 625, Small Group (Spring 1997)
IPC 597, Research Methods (Fall 1998; Fall 1997)

University of New Mexico

Graduate seminar in Health Communication (Spring 1992) [I developed this new course.]

4. Other Teaching

Bowling Green State University

Directing IPC 203, Small Group Communication with graduate teaching assistants (1997-2002)

Indiana University-South Bend

Seminar in Health Communication (Spring 1995; Spring 1994; Spring 1993) [I developed this graduate and undergraduate course; it was crosslisted with nursing.]

5. Thesis and Dissertation Students

Doctoral Dissertations Directed at BGSU: 5

Jeanette Drake, "Would a Family Farm?" completed November 2004

David Weinandy, "An Analysis of the Communication of Hospital Nurses and Terminally Ill Patients," completed June 1997

Jennifer Wood, "A Multiperspective of Organizational Culture Creating Employee Empowerment in a Nonprofit Service Organization," completed August 1999 (nominated for Outstanding Dissertation Award at Bowling Green State University)

Ginger Bihn, "What's Happening on the Sidelines: Collegiate Cheerleading and Organizational Discourse," completed 2002 (graduation 2003)

Tatyana Dumova, "Decoding a Prosocial Message: content Analysis of a Local Children's Television Series, 1972-2002," completed 2003 (graduation 2003)

Number of Dissertation Defenses:

2004: 1; 2003: 2; 2002: 4; 2001: 1; 2000: 1; 1999: 2; 1998: 1; 1997: 1

Number of Dissertation Proposal Meetings:

2004: 1; 2003: 4; 2002: 1; 2001: 2; 1999: 3; 1998: 2; 1997: 3; 1996: 1

Number of Preliminary Examinations:

2004: 2; 2003: 3; 2002: 5; 2000: 1; 1999: 3; 1998: 5; 1997: 4

Number of MA written comprehensives in 2004: 8

Number of M.A. written comprehensives in 2002: 6

Number of M.A. oral defenses of comprehensive examination in 2002: 1

Number of M.A. written comprehensives in 2001: 7

Number of M.A. written comprehensives in 2000: 9

Number of M.A. Committees (cumulative) at University of New Mexico, 1991-92: 7

Number of M.A. Project Committees: 1, 2003;

IV. CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT

Working with other IPC Faculty, Ginger Bihn, Career Focus of Social Services, 2004

Member, Graduate Curriculum Review Committee, Summer 2002, Dr. J. Warren, Chair

Facilitator for faculty of the whole committee development of new career focus selections for undergraduate major in Interpersonal Communication, 2001

Author, new undergraduate course IPC 444, Health Communication, 2000

Co-author, new graduate course COMS 657, Intercultural Communication, 2000

Author, new introductory to communication studies, COMS 600, 1999 (Graduate Program Committee and vote of the faculty gave direction to the restructured courses.)

Chair, Graduate Program Committee, School of Communication Studies, restructured graduate (Ph.D. and M.A.) program from two programs, i.e., mass communication and interpersonal, to one Ph.D. and M.A., oversight for development of new courses, 1998-2001

Indiana University–South Bend

Member, Division of the Arts Curriculum and Teaching Committee (assisted in developing Arts general education curriculum; drafted detailed general education proposal), 1994

Team Leader for writing graduate communication curriculum; School Leadership Development I & II; Communication Curriculum Committee; primary author of curriculum for communication in a new M.A. for secondary administration; Division of Education Lilly Grant, 1993-1995

University of New Mexico

Member, Department of Communication and Journalism Committee on Organizational Communication Curriculum, 1991-1992

University of Oklahoma

Department of Communication Undergraduate Curriculum Committee (planning and implementation), 1989-91

Representative to OU General Education Change Committee, New SAT and ACT Test Committee, 1989-90

V. PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Attendee, Central States Communication Association Communication Pre-conference
At the Crossroads: Exploring Research Opportunities in Holistic/Alternative/Integrative Medicine, Omaha, Nebraska, April 2003

Moderator, Roundtable on Gender, Race, Class, and Incarceration, as part of the pre-conference Communication in Prisons: Taking Action through Teaching, Scholarship, & Activism, National Communication Association, November 2002

Cherokee History Seminar, Tahlequah, OK, Cherokee Nation historian Dr. J. Collins and Principal Chief Chad Smith teaching a week-long seminar, January 2002

Teaching Quality Seminars, Bowling Green State University, 2000 (Member, Committee for Diversity)

Participant, Pre-conference on Community and Research, National Communication Association, 1997

Group facilitator and attendee, Speech Communication Association Summer Conference on Cultural Studies, Nashville, TN, July 1993

Participant, Seminar on APA Style, Oklahoma Communication State Communication Association, 1989

Participant, Seminar Organizational Communication and In-class Simulations, Oklahoma State Communication Meeting, 1988

VI. ACADEMIC ADVISING

Current Number of Doctoral Advisees: 6 (Hampton-Farmer, Sanders, Manogo)

Current Number of COMS Doctoral Committees IPC: 3

Previous COMS Doctoral Committees: 7

Cumulative external Doctoral Committees total: 9

Cumulative M.A. Advisees BGSU: 13 (2005)

Number of IPC Undergraduate Advisees, Fall 2004, 45; December 2003, 45; June 2001 to June 2002: 110+ (1996-2001: 50-80+ yearly)

VII. RESEARCH

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Health Communication
Intercultural Communication
(emphasis on Native American social issues)
Organizational Communication

CURRENT RESEARCH:

Patients and Diabetes, Burke, J., Dixon, L., Wilke, A., & Puczynski, S., funded by Fraternal Order of Eagles (J. Burke's grant), 1999-ongoing

Perspectives of Physicians with Patients Who Have Alzheimer's and Their Family Members, Dixon, L., Hampton-Farmer, C., & Sanders, F., funded by the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Ohio, 2004-ongoing

Dixon, L., Pratt, S., & Hill, L. B. [a book based on Cherokee, Osage, and White researchers' projects on American Indians] A working title Native Americans: A Communication Perspective, 2002-ongoing

The Effects of Alzheimer's disease on families and friends: Lessons to be learned from their stories with (graduate students) Cheri Hampton-Farmer, Felicia Sanders, Kelley Maily, and others, funded by the Fraternal Order of Eagles, 2003-ongoing People's Perception of Alzheimer's Disease: Knowledge and its Relationship to Dealing with the Family Disease with Dr. Julie Burke, Cheri Hampton-Farmer, and others, funded by the Fraternal Order of Eagles, 2002-ongoing.

Reflections of "The Good Times:" Caregivers Perceptions of Rementia and Reminiscing in dementia and Alzheimer's
Ginger Bihn, Kate Simcox, Lynda Dixon (paper to be sent to journal)

Alzheimer's Disease: The Emotional Impact on Women Whose Loved Ones Have Dementia, Lynda Dee Dixon, Ginger Bihn, Cheri Hampton-Farmer, 2002-ongoing

VIII. RESEARCH PROJECTS AND GRANTS

Faculty Research Committee Travel Grant for Faculty Improvement, Office of the Provost, 2005, $500

Fraternal Order of Eagles, Alzheimer's Grant, 2005, $14,500

Fraternal Order of Eagles, Alzheimer's Grant, 2004, $10,000

Fraternal Order of Eagles, Alzheimer's Grant, 2003, $10,000

Fraternal Order of Eagles, Alzheimer's Grant, 2003, $10,000

Fraternal Order of Eagles, Alzheimer's Grant, 2002, $10,000

Fraternal Order of Eagles, Alzheimer's Grant, 2001, $10,000

Fraternal Order of Eagles, Alzheimer's Grant, 2000, $10,000

Faculty Research Committee Travel Grant, National Communication Association, 1999, $400

Bayer Health Communication Grant, with Julie R. Burke (PI), 1999, $20,000
(unsuccessful)

Fraternal Order of Eagles (with co-investigator Jennifer Kinney, Ph.D.), BGSU, 1999, $10,000

- Fraternal Order of Eagles (with co-investigator Jennifer Kinney, Ph.D.), BGSU, 1998, $10,000
- Faculty Research Committee Travel Grant to Central States Communication Association, BGSU, 1998, $400
- Alumni Summer Research Fellowship, $4,500, Bowling Green State University, 1997
- Fraternal Order of Eagles (consultant with primary investigator Jennifer Kinney, Ph.D.), BGSU, 1997, $10,000
- Speed Grant to National Communication Association, BGSU, 1997, $260
- Faculty Research Committee Travel Grant to International Communication Association, Montreal Conference, BGSU, 1997, $400
- Grant-in-Aid-of-Research for travel to China for two weeks research and one week conference for the Institute for Cross-cultural Research, Indiana University, 1995, $1,200
- The Presidential International Travel Grant for projects in Hong Kong and Beijing and a conference paper presentation in Harbin, China, Indiana University-South Bend, 1995, $800
- Travel funding to China (research in Hong Kong and Beijing), Indiana University-South Bend, 1995, $1,000
- Summer Research Fellowship, Oklahoma Indian Women and Aging, Indiana University-South Bend, 1995, $5,000
- Research Grant for a study of health communication in Spain, West European Studies National Research Center, Indiana University, 1994, $650
- Intercampus Research Grant for a study of health communication at Indiana University School of Medicine, Indiana University, 1994, 1996), $7,200
- Grant-in-Aid-of-Research for support of 3 research assistants for Yale University Hospital Clinic project, Indiana University-South Bend, 1993, $1,450
- Research funding for Yale-New Haven Hospital clinic research, "An ethnographic study of health provider/patient discourse at a university-affiliated teaching hospital: Assessing the impact of communication processes on health care delivery," Indiana University-South Bend, 1993, $4,000
- Minority Fellowship, Regents for Higher Education of Oklahoma, 1987-1989, $500 monthly and tuition waiver

Dissertation funding from the Oklahoma Regents for Higher Education, 1989, $1,000

Dissertation funding from the Graduate College, University of Oklahoma, 1988, $500

IX. PUBLICATIONS

A. Publications

1. Books

(a) Textbooks

O'Hair, D., Friedrich, G., & Dixon, L. (2005, 2001, 1997, 1995). Strategic communication in business and the professions (5th ed., 4th ed., 3rd ed., & 2nd ed.). Boston: Houghton Mifflin.

(b) Scholarly books

Fletcher, B., Shaver, L. Dixon, & Moon, D. (Eds.). (1993). Women prisoners: A forgotten population. Westport, CT: Praeger/Greenwood Press.

Chapters in that book:

Shaver, L. Dixon. (1993). The relationship between language culture and recidivism among women offenders. In B. Fletcher, L. Dixon Shaver, & D. Moon (Eds.), Women prisoners: A forgotten population (pp. 119-134). Westport, CT: Praeger/Greenwood Press.

Moon, D., Fletcher, B., & Shaver, L. Dixon. (1993) Perspectives on correctional organizations. In B. Fletcher, L. Dixon Shaver, & D. Moon (Eds.), Women prisoners: A forgotten population (pp. 93-110). Westport, CT: Praeger/Greenwood Press.

(c) Chapters of Books [refereed]

Hill, L. B., & Dixon, L. D. (2005). The intercultural communication context: Preparation for international public relations. In M. Peterson (Ed.), International public relations.

Dixon, L. D. (2003). The Cherokee way: A rhetorical analysis of Principal Chief Chadwick A. "Corntassel" Smith's speech "Let Us Build One Fire." In J. Golden, G. Bourquist, W. Goldman, & J. M. Sproule, (Eds.), The Rhetoric of Western Thought (8th ed) (pp.). Dubuque, IA: Kendall/Hunt.

Dixon, L. (2004, 2000, 1996). A house as symbol, a house as home: Mamaw and her Oklahoma Cherokee family. In A. Gonzalez, M. Houston, & V.

Chen (Eds.), Our voices (4th, 3rd, & 2nd eds.) (pp. 125-128). Los Angeles: Roxbury Press.

Shaver, L. Dixon. (1997). The dilemma of Oklahoma Indian women elders: Women's traditional roles and sociocultural roles. In H. Noor Al-Deen (Ed.), Cross-cultural aging in the U.S. (pp. 161-177). Hillsdale, NJ: Erlbaum.

Washington, P., & Shaver, L. Dixon. (1997). The language culture of rap music. In J. Adjaye & A. Andrews (Eds.), Language, rhythm, and sound (pp. 164-177). University of Pittsburgh Press.

Shaver, L. Dixon, & Shaver, P. M. (1995). Care givers in communication with HIV patients: A perspectival rhetorical analysis of health discourse. In L. Fuller & L. Shilling (Eds.), Communicating about communicable diseases (pp. 261-276). Amherst, MA: HRD Press.

Ragan, S., & Glenn, L. Dixon. (1990). Communication and gynecological health care. In D. O'Hair & G. Kreps (Eds.), Applied communication theory and research (pp. 313-330). Hillsdale, NJ: Erlbaum.

2. Journal Articles

(a) Refereed Articles

(1) Journals

Burke, J. A., Earley, M. A., Dixon, L., Wilke, A., & Puczynski, S. (anticipated 2005). Patients with diabetes speak: Exploring the implications of patients' perspectives communication for their diabetes appointments. Health Communication.

Dixon, L. (2004). A case study of an intercultural health care visit: An African American woman and her White male physician. Women and Language, 27, 45-52.

Dixon, L. (2003). Interactions between Native American women and their White male doctor: The stages of a health care visit at a public health facility. Intercultural Communication Studies, 12(1), 43-58.

Hill, L. B., Dixon, L., & Goss, L. B. (2000). Intercultural communication: Trends, problems, and prospects. Intercultural Communication Studies, 10(1), 189-194.

Dixon, L., & Shaver, P. M. (2000). The cultural perspective of a public health facility for Oklahoma American Indians: Architectural changes as organizational rhetoric. In A. Gonzalez & D. Tanno (Eds.), Rhetoric in intercultural contexts: International and intercultural communication annual NCA, 22 (pp. 131-145). Thousand Oaks, CA: Sage.

Dixon, L., & Washington, P. (1999). Rap music videos: The voices of organic intellectuals. TRANS, 4 [online]. Available: <http://www2.uji.es/trans/trans4/CV.html> or <http://www2.jui.es/trans/trans4/Pat.html>

Shaver, P. M., & Shaver Dixon, L. (1998). "Icons" of bureaucratic therapy: An application of Eco's semiotic methodology in an intercultural health care setting. Intercultural Communication Studies, 8(2), 115-130.

Kim, Y., Lujan, P., & Dixon, L. (1998). "I can walk both ways": Identity integration of American Indians in Oklahoma. Human Communication Research, 25(2), 252-274.

Kim, Y., Lujan, P., & Dixon, L. (1998). Patterns of communication and interethnic integration: A study of American Indians in Oklahoma. Canadian Journal of Native Education, 22(1), 120-137.

Shaver, L. Dixon. (1998). The cultural deprivation of an Oklahoma Cherokee family. In D. Tanno & A. Gonzalez (Eds.), Communication and identity across cultures: International and intercultural communication annual NCA, 20 (pp. 80-99). Thousand Oaks, CA: Sage.

Shaver, P. M., & Shaver, L. Dixon. (1992). Applying perspectival rhetorical analysis in intercultural consulting: The chromosomal bivalency model. Intercultural Communication Studies, 2(2), 1-20.

NOTE: The following manuscripts are submitted or in various stages of revision to be resubmitted.

Dixon, L., & Kinney, J. (submitted). Emergent dilemmas of wives caring for their husbands with dementia. (Rejected; in revision)

(2) Proceedings

Shaver, P. M., & Shaver, L. Dixon. (1996). The dilemma of multicultural communication: Interaction as conflict or emergent discourse. In G. McKinley-Griffith & D. Griffith (Eds.), Fountainhead Tanz Theatre 8th Black International Cinema Film Festival. Berlin, Germany: Kino Arsenal. (available in German and English)

Washington, P., & Shaver, L. Dixon. (1995, April). A perspectival rhetorical analysis of the language culture of rap music videos: The African American tradition of the outlaw. In Proceedings of the Black Popular Culture Conference, University of Pittsburgh, PA.

Shaver, L. Dixon. (1994). Communication and Native Americans. In J. Bread (Ed.), Colloquium on American Indian research and administration. Norman, OK: University of Oklahoma, Foundations in Native Education (FINE) Program.

Shaver, P. M., & Shaver, L. Dixon. (1992). Applying perspectival rhetorical analysis in intercultural consulting: The chromosomal bivalency model. In T. Jones (Ed.), Proceedings of the Temple University 13th Annual Discourse Analysis Conference: Conflict and Diversity. Philadelphia: Department of Communication.

Shaver, P. M., & Shaver, L. Dixon. (1992). Signs in the organization: Architectural changes as organizational rhetoric in a public health facility. In K. Lamude (Ed.), Proceedings of the Organizational Communication Interest Group, Western States Communication Association. San Bernadino, CA: California State University.

3. Book Reviews

Dixon, L. (2004) [Review of the book Communicating health: Personal, cultural, and political complexities]. Journal of Health Communication, 7.

Dixon, L. (2001). [Review of the book Rape on prime time: Television, masculinity, and sexual violence]. Journal of Health Communication, 4(2), 163-166.

Dixon, L. (1999). [Review of the book U.S.-Mexico Border health: Issues for regional and migrant populations]. Journal of Communication, 51(3), 433-434.

4. Unpublished Papers

Glenn, L. Dixon. (1991). Health care communication between American Indian women and a white male doctor: A study of interaction at a public health care facility. (University of Oklahoma, 1990). Dissertation Abstracts International, 51, 2722B.

Lujan, P., & Glenn, L. Dixon. (1989). History of Oklahoma Indians. An unpublished paper, University of Oklahoma, Norman, OK.

X. PAPERS READ TO PROFESSIONAL SOCIETIES

A. Invited Papers

Burke, J., Dixon, L., Wilke, A., & Puczynski, S. (June 3, 2004). Patients with Diabetes Speak: Exploring the Implications of Patients' Perspectives Communication for Their Diabetes Appointments. Medical College of Ohio, Family Clinic, Scholarly Forum Announcement, Toledo, Ohio.

Dixon, L. (2004). Invited speaker. "Women in Prison." Central Michigan State University, Mt. Pleasant, MI. March 24-26, 2004

*Dixon, L. (2003). Plenary session speaker, Connecting Conversations, Health Communication, World Communication Association, Stockholm, Sweden, July 2003. (*was unable to attend)

Shaver, L. Dixon. (1994, April). Ethical issues for women prisoners. Featured guest speaker at a national seminar based on my co-edited book Women prisoners: A forgotten population, Women in Prison Symposium, presented at Grailville, an education and conference center for women, Loveland, OH.

Shaver, L. Dixon (1992, April). Health communication research as defined by cultural differences. Presented as a poster presentation at the Health Research Day, Department of Pediatrics, University of New Mexico School of Medicine, Albuquerque, NM.

B. Refereed Papers and Papers in Refereed Panels and Poster Presentations

Dixon, L. (2004 November). Roundtable: "Accessing the Association: Reflecting on NCA's Diversity Policies and Moving Forward on Including Persons with Disabilities." NCA, Chicago, IL.

Dixon, L. (2004). Roundtable: "Generating and Mentoring Academic Identities Part III." NCA, Chicago, IL.

Dixon, L. (2004). Roundtable: "Mentoring Among Co-Cultures in the United States." NCA, Chicago, IL.

Dixon, L. (2004). Roundtable: "Moving Forward or Back? A Panel Discussion of Feminist Research in the Academy." NCA, Chicago, IL.

Dixon, L. (2004). Roundtable: "Teaching and Researching In Prisons: What You Need To Know." NCA, Chicago, IL.

Dixon, L. (2004, November). A case study of an intercultural health care visit: An African American woman and her White male physician. Third Annual Research Conference Bowling Green State University, November 2004.

- Dixon, L. and others. (2004, April). Participant in roundtable “Successfully Generating Grant Monies that Serve Lesser-resourced Communities.” Central States Communication Association, Cleveland, OH.
- Dixon, L. and others. (2004, April). Author and participant in roundtable “Ethical Research Responsibilities with Women and At-risk Populations.” Central States Communication Association, Cleveland, OH.
- Dixon, L. and others. (2004). Participant in “Central States rocks? Perspectives through Intercultural Lens.” Central States Communication Association, Cleveland, OH.
- Dixon, L. and others. (2004). Author and participant in roundtable “Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996: Information, Effects, and Debate about HIPPA.” Central States Communication Association, Cleveland, OH.
- Dixon, L. and others. (2004). Participant in roundtable “Rocking the Undergraduate Curriculum by Infusing Intercultural Communication.” Central States Communication Association, Cleveland, OH
- Dixon, L. (2003, November). Participant in the panel “Suppressing Identities for Success: Navigating through the Job Search, Tenure, and Publication.” NCA, Miami, FL.
- Dixon, L. (2003, April). Planner and participant: “The emotional effects of Alzheimer’s Disease: The Family Disease.” A roundtable discussion of diverse perspectives on a group project, CSCA, Omaha, NE.
- Dixon, L. D. (2003, April). Participant in discussion on “Graduate Programs in Communication,” Central States Communication Association, and Undergraduate Conference, Omaha, NE.
- Dixon, L. (2003, April). “Clarifying Crossroads: The Importance of Teaching and Researching Diversity in the Basic Course.” Participant in roundtable.
- Dixon, L., Hampton-Farmer, C., Pauley, S., & Mitchell, A. (2003, April). “The Impact of a Loved One’s Dementia on Family Members and Friends: Guilt, Adjustment, and Coping.” Tenth Annual Research Symposium (Psychology Departments of Bowling Green State University, University of Toledo, and the Medical College of Ohio Department of Psychiatry), Toledo, OH.

- Dixon, L. (2003, April). Participant in a panel "Undergraduate Honors Conference: Graduate Programs in the Central States."
- Dixon, L. (2003, April). Participant in the panel "Celebrations and Festivals: Public Displays of Ethnicity." Omaha, NE, CSCA, 2003.
- Dixon, L. (2003). "A case study of an intercultural health care visit: An African American woman and her White male physician." BGSU's Second Annual Research Conference BGSU Poster.
- Dixon, L., Hampton-Farmer, C., Pauley, S., & Mitchell, A. (2003, April). The Impact of a Loved One's Dementia on Family Members and Friends: Guilt, Adjustment, and Coping. Tenth Annual Research Symposium (Psychology Departments of Bowling Green State University, University of Toledo, and the Medical College of Ohio Department of Psychiatry), Toledo, OH.
- Dixon, L., Burke, J., Earley, M., Wilke, A., & Puczynski, S. (2002, November). Patients with diabetes speak: The complexity of self-management. National Communication Association, New Orleans, LA.
- Dixon, L., & Valentine, K. (2002, November). Participant in Communication in prisons: Taking action through teaching, scholarship, & activism." Discussion leaders for "Race, gender, and class." National Communication Association, New Orleans, LA.
- Earley, M. A., Dixon, L., Burke, J. A., Wilke, A., & Puczynski, S. (2002, April). Patients Talk About Living with Diabetes: Do Doctors Listen? Paper presented at the 8th Annual Qualitative Health Research Conference, Banff, Alberta, Canada.
- Dixon, L. D. (2002, April). Planner and participant: Ethics and Health Communication Research: A Roundtable on our responsibilities to humanity, federal guidelines, and University Policies. Central States Communication Association, Milwaukee, WI.
- Dixon, L. D. (2002, April). Participant, Roundtable Discussion: Intercultural Communication from Our Own Perspectives: CSCA and Beyond. Central States Communication Association, Milwaukee, WI.
- Dixon, L. D. (2002, April). Participant in discussion on Graduate Programs in Communication, Central States Communication Association, Milwaukee, WI.

- Earley, M. A., Dixon, L., Burke, J. A., Wilke, A., & Puczynski, S. (2002, February). Patients with diabetes discuss the complexity of self-management. Poster presented at the 2nd Annual Mercy Health Partners Research Symposium, Toledo, OH.
- Dixon, L. (2001, November). Panelist on The Opportunities/Challenges of Globalism for Graduate Programs with International and Minority Students, Asian/Pacific American Communication Studies Division/Asian/Pacific American Caucus sponsored discussion, National Communication Association Conference, Atlanta, GA.
- Dixon, L. (2001, November). The male correctional model doesn't fit women prisoners, a participant in a panel for the National Communication Association Conference, Atlanta, GA.
- Dixon, L. (2001, November). African Americans' health care at a New England private university teaching hospital: A critical analysis of patients' needs versus organizational resources, a participant in a panel for the National Communication Association Conference, Atlanta, GA.
- Earley, M. A., Dixon, L., Burke, J. A., Wilke, A., & Puczynski, S. (2001, August). Patients with diabetes discuss the complexity of self-management. Poster presented at the Ohio Academy of Family Physicians Research Day, Columbus, OH.
- Dixon, L. (2001, April). Naming issues in intercultural communication research: Orbe's "Co-culture" as a tool and as a theory, a paper presented for a panel "Scholars Exploring Co-cultural Theory with Mark Orbe" at the Central States Communication Association, Cincinnati, OH.
- Earley, M. A., Dixon, L., Burke, J. A., Wilke, A., & Puczynski, S. (2001, February). Patients' goals for routine medical visits for diabetes care. Poster presented at the 1st Annual Mercy Health Partners Research Symposium, Toledo, OH.
- Dixon, L. (2001, February). Women prisoners and their perspectives on "doing good time" and recidivism, a roundtable presented at the Western States Communication Association, Coeur D'Alene, ID.
- Dixon, L. (2000, November). The voices behind the locked doors: Women inmates sharing their lives, a paper presented as part of a panel "Unlocking the Doors for Incarcerated Women: Performance and Roundtable for Action" at the National Communication Association Conference, Seattle, WA.
- Dixon, L. (2000, April). A promising trend in intercultural communication research: Aging as culture, a paper presented as part of a panel, Central States Communication Association.

- Dixon, L. (2000, April). Analyzing data: Diverse paths, a paper presented as part of a panel "A Madness to the Method: Untangling the Processes and Outcomes of Computer-Mediated Qualitative Data Analysis," Central States Communication Association.
- Dixon, L. (1999, November). A case study of an intercultural health care visit: An African American woman and her white male physician. Competitive paper presented at the National Communication Association Conference, Chicago, IL.
- Dixon, L. (1999, November). Confessions of a qualitative researchers: The intersection of interdisciplinary methods and research goals. Author and presenter in the panel "Coping Skills for family caregivers who care for loved ones with dementia: The intersection of interdisciplinary methods and research goals." Presented at the National Communication Association Conference, Chicago, IL.
- Dixon, L. (1999, November). Feminists and technology: Cultural identity. Author and presenter on the panel "Feminists and technology: Voices and representation" presented at the National Communication Association Conference, Chicago, IL.
- Dixon, L. (1999, November). Conflict management among Episcopalians. A paper as part of the panel "Conflict management in religious organizations" presented at the National Communication Association Conference, Chicago, IL.
- Dixon, L. (1999, July). Intercultural communication: New directions. In Plenary Session "Intercultural communication: Trends, problems, and prospects," Seventh International Conference on Cross-cultural Communication (International Association for Intercultural Studies), Louisville, KY.
- Dixon, L. (1999, April). The American Indian perspective of health related belief system. Presented as part of a panel "Cultural barriers that prevent the effective communication between patients and physicians." Presented at the joint Southern States Communication Association and Central States Communication Association Conference, St. Louis, MO.
- Dixon, L. (1999, April). Grandmother, why is fry bread bad? Author and presenter of the panel "American Indian perspectives of diabetes: The dilemma of culture and health." Presented at the joint Southern States Communication Association and Central States Communication Association Conference, St. Louis, MO.
- Dixon, L. (1999, April). Participant in the roundtable "Issues in information technology." Presented at the joint Southern States Communication Association and Central States Communication Association Conference, St. Louis, MO.

- Dixon, L. (1999, April). Discussant on “Intersubjectivity and method: Stages of naive participant and purposeful researchers.” A panel presented at the joint Southern States Communication Association and Central States Communication Association Conference, St. Louis, MO.
- Dixon, L. (1999, April). Participant in the roundtable “Looking forward, looking back: Melted, quilted, tossed, and tangled dialogues turn practical,” a conclusion to an ongoing panel on intercultural communication. Conducted at the joint Southern States Communication Association and Central States Communication Association Conference, St. Louis, MO.
- Dixon, L. (1999, April). Writing in higher education: Writing as improvement or remediation in graduate school. Author and presenter of the panel “Writing in higher education: Meeting student needs—meeting academic standards.” Presented at the joint Southern States Communication Association and Central States Communication Association Conference, St. Louis, MO.
- Kim, Y., Lujan, P., & Dixon, L. (1998, November). Patterns of intra-ethnic and inter-ethnic communication: A study of American Indians in Oklahoma. Presented at the National Communication Association, New York.
- Dixon, L. (1998, November). The Million Man March on Washington: A perspectival rhetorical analysis of the cultural issues man to man. Presented in a panel at the National Communication Association, New York.
- Dixon, L. (1998, November). American Indians and their “other” family members: The communication researchers. Presented in a panel “Lessons learned: Contextualizing participation concerns of historically marginalized groups in communication research” at the National Communication Association, New York.
- Dixon, L., & Kinney, J. (1998, November). Spousal caregivers: Emergent dilemmas in coping with dementia. Presented at the Gerontological Society of American Conference, Philadelphia.
- Dixon, L. (1998, April). Objectives 1 and 2: Conceptual foundations and self-awareness in intercultural communication. Presented as part of a panel at Central States Communication Association, Chicago.
- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1997, November). Minority hires in higher education: The effects of preferential hiring for women and women of color. Presenter and planner of a competitive panel “Diversity issues among women in communication” at the National Communication Association, Chicago.
- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1997, November). A holistic approach: Intercultural communication classes for the nonmajor. Presented in a panel “A holistic approach: Incorporating intercultural communication throughout a student’s entire college experience” at the National Communication Association, Chicago.

- Shaver, L. Dixon, & Shaver, P. M. (1997, November). The centrality of the communication discipline to intercultural communication pedagogy: The role of experiential learning methods. Presented in a panel “Competitively selected research V: Issues in education” at the National Communication Association, Chicago.
- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1997, May). A taxonomy of the physician/patient visit: Patterns that reveal perspectives. Presented in a panel planned by L. Dixon Shaver & P. Shaver “Approaching a new data base” at the International Communication Association, Montreal, Canada.
- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1997, April). Native American identity: Rhetorical and semiotic considerations. Presented in a dialogue “Ethnic/cultural/ racial identity: (Inter)Cultural communication theory and research” at the Central States Communication Association, St. Louis, MO.
- Shaver, L. Dixon, & Shaver, Paul M. (1997, April). The impact of intercultural communication: Qualitative assessment through student journals. Presented in a panel “Are we making a difference?” at the Central States Communication Association, St. Louis, MO.
- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1997, April). Student journals as an assessment instrument. Presented in a panel “Program assessment in international/intercultural communication” at the Central States Communication Association, St. Louis, MO.
- Shaver, L. Dixon, & Shaver, P. M. (1997, March). The new minority: International undergraduate students. Presented at the International Association for Intercultural Communication Studies, Tempe, AZ.
- Kim, Y., Lujan, P., & Shaver, L. Dixon. (1996, May). I can walk both ways: Identity integration of American Indians in Oklahoma. Presented at the International Communication Association, Chicago.
- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1996, May). Expansion and transition of the International Graduate Assistant Program. Presenter and planner of the panel “Pedagogical issues in intercultural training for international graduate students” at the International Communication Association, Chicago.
- Shaver, P., & Shaver, L. Dixon. (1996, April). HIV positive: Sickness or stigma as defined in the 1992 presidential campaign. Presented at the Central States Communication Conference, St. Paul, MN.
- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1996, April). Sociocultural relationships between Chinese and U.S. populations. Presenter and planner of the panel “China in the Twenty-first century” at the Central States Communication Conference, St. Paul, MN.

- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1995, November). International students as a "new minority" at a regional university: Faculty and student acculturation. Presenter and planner in a panel "International and ESL undergraduate students: Communication issues in pedagogy, curriculum, and student acculturation" at the Speech Communication Association Conference, San Antonio, TX.
- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1995, August). The dilemma of human rights and commerce: Cultural conflict between the U.S. and other transnational organizations. Presenter and planner (with P. M. Shaver) in the panel "Cross-cultural perspectives of human rights in the language of media, commerce, politics, and the arts" at the Fifth Conference of the Institute for Cross-cultural Research in Harbin, China.
- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1995, May). Standardizing the basic course. Presenter and planner of the competitive panel "Standardizing the basic course: Evaluating the results of standardization and responding to evaluations II" at the International Communication Association Conference, Albuquerque, NM.
- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1995, April). Standardization of the basic course. Presenter and planner of the competitive panel "The basic communication course: The transitional process of changing the basic course to a standardized course I" at the Central States Communication Association Conference, Indianapolis, IN.
- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1995, April). Effects of changing demographics of students in higher education and cultural training. Presenter and planner of the panel "Cultural socialization and pedagogical issues at a Midwestern university: The effects on international students, ethnically diverse students, and mainstream students" at the Central States Communication Association, Indianapolis, IN.
- Washington, P., & Shaver, L. Dixon. (1995, April). A perspectival rhetorical analysis of the language culture of rap music videos: The African American tradition of the outlaw. Presented at the Black Popular Culture Conference, University of Pittsburgh, PA.
- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1994, November). Native Americans in the intercultural communication course: The paradox of the student who is the subject. Presented in a panel presented at Speech Communication Association, New Orleans, LA. (Available on ERIC).
- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1994, November). Presenter and planner of "Experiential learning in intercultural communication classes in higher education part II—dissemination of technology-assisted learning activities" at the Speech Communication Association, New Orleans, LA.

- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1993, November). The communication perspective in the study of a woman's correctional organization. Presenter on a roundtable "Women and justice: The effects of gender, race, and class on legal discourse" at the Speech Communication Association, Miami, FL.
- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1993, November). Planner and participant of "Experiential learning in intercultural communication classes in higher education I: A workshop on the development, design, and dissemination of technology-assisted learning activities. A competitive workshop" at the Speech Communication Association, Miami, FL.
- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1993, November). Native American issues in research and pedagogy. Presenter and planner of the panel "The status of U.S. ethnic groups in intercultural communication research and pedagogy: A roundtable discussion on issues related to African American, Native American, Mexican American cultures" at the Speech Communication Association Conference, Miami, FL.
- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1993, November). Cultural deprivation of a contemporary Oklahoma Cherokee family. Presented in the panel "Perspectives of self: Native American scholars on issues among Native Americans" at the Speech Communication Association Conference, Miami, FL. (Available on ERIC)
- Washington, P., & Shaver, L. Dixon. (1993, November). A discourse analysis of rap music videos: The African American tradition of the outlaw. Presented at the "Seminar series: The music video phenomenon" at the Speech Communication Association Conference, Miami, FL.
- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1993, May). Gender issues in AIDS: An analysis of discourse about HIV-positive women patients. Presenter in the panel "New directions in women's health communication research," at the International Communication Association Conference, Washington, DC.
- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1993, May). An analysis of interpersonal and organizational discourse: An application of a health communication taxonomy in a correctional organization. Presented at the International Communication Association Conference, Washington, DC.
- Hill, B., Lakey, P., Norton, L., & Shaver, L. Dixon. (1993, March). International training program development: A case study with projections. Presented at the Institute for Cross-cultural Communication Studies Conference, San Antonio, TX.
- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1993, March). Minority hires in higher education: Overcoming the effects of preferential recruitment. Presented in the panel "In-groups and out-groups of the organization" at the Institute for Cross-cultural Research Conference, San Antonio, TX.

- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1992, October). Intercultural consulting with federal agencies: Intercultural communication between the Indian Health Service and Native American patients. Presenter and co-planner (with Paul M. Shaver) in “Intercultural consulting and chromosomal bivalency: A biological model for intervention strategies.” Presented at the Speech Communication Association, Chicago.
- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1992, May). Health care communication between American Indian women and a white male doctor: A study of interaction at a public health facility. Presented at the International Communication Association, Miami, FL (nominated for top health communication dissertation).
- Shaver, P. M., & Shaver, L. Dixon. (1992, April). Applying perspectival rhetorical analysis in intercultural consulting: The chromosomal bivalency model. Presented at Temple University 13th Annual Discourse Analysis Conference: Conflict and Diversity, Philadelphia.
- Shaver, P. M., & Shaver, L. Dixon. (1992, May). "Icons" of bureaucratic therapy: An application of Eco's semiotic methodology. Presented at the International Communication Association, Miami, FL.
- Shaver, P. M., & Shaver, L. Dixon. (1992, February). Signs in the organization: Architectural changes as organizational rhetoric in a public health facility. Presented at Western States Communication Association, Boise, ID.
- Shaver, L. Dixon. (1991, September). Health communication between women and health providers: Implications for cardiovascular research. Presented at the Women, Behavior and Cardiovascular Disease Conference (sponsored by the Public Health Service, National Institute of Health), Chevy Chase, MD.
- Fletcher, B., Shaver, L. Dixon, & Moon, D. (1991, August). A profile: The project for recidivism research and female training. Presented at the Third National Conference on Women Offenders, Washington, DC.
- Kim, Y., Lujan, P., Shaver, L. Dixon, & Boyle, A. (1991, November). Cultural adaptation of American Indians in Oklahoma. Presented in the panel “Ethnic identity, communication assumptions, and intercultural communication” at the Speech Communication Association, Atlanta, GA.
- Glenn, L. Dixon. (1990, November). Health care communication between culturally different health care givers and patients: The time problem. Presented in the panel “Telling it like it is: The exchange of health communication in a variety of naturalistic settings” at the Speech Communication Association, Chicago, IL.

Glenn, L. Dixon. (1989, November). A case research: The socialization process of an employee entering a state bureaucracy. Presented at the Speech Communication Association Convention, San Francisco, CA (ranked as one of the top three student papers Organizational Communication Division).

Glenn, L. Dixon. (1988, November). Formulations in conversation: Influences of peer and non-peer status. Competitive student paper presented at the Speech Communication Association Convention, New Orleans, LA.

Glenn, L. Dixon. (1988, October). A processual and developmental approach to the use of "The River" in small group classes. Presented at the annual Oklahoma Speech, Theatre, and Communication Association, Edmond, OK.

Glenn, L. Dixon. (1988, March). Communication and Native Americans. Presented at the "Colloquium on American Indian research and administration" at the University of Oklahoma College of Education and Foundations in Native Education (FINE), Norman, OK.

C. Non-refereed Papers

Shaver, L. Dixon, & Shaver, P. M. (1995, April). Implementing experiential learning in the higher education intercultural communication class: More than simulation, less than reality. Presented in the panel "The intercultural learning experience in higher education" at the Southern States Communication Association, New Orleans, LA.

Shaver, L. Dixon. (1994, April). The Native American secondary student: Cultural and pedagogical issues. Presented in the "Vice-presidential panel on Native Americans" at the Central States Communication Association, Oklahoma City, OK.

Shaver, P. M., & Shaver, L. Dixon. (1993, March). The dilemma of multicultural communication: Interaction as conflict or emergent discourse. Presented at the 8th Black International Cinema Film Festival, Indiana University–South Bend, South Bend, IN.

D. Invited Academic Presentations

Shaver, L. Dixon. (1994, October). Guest lecturer at Indiana University-Purdue Fort Wayne, Department of Speech Communication; presenter of 2 days of seminars for graduate and undergraduate students in intercultural communication and health communication, Fort Wayne, IN.

XI. SERVICE

A. Department of Interpersonal Communication and School of Communication Studies Bowling Green State University

Chair, IPC Search Committee, 2005-2006
 Participant, Staff Search Committee, 2004
 Guest speaker, Journalism undergraduate course, Dr. Nancy Brendlinger, 2004
 Member, Search Committee, Secretary 1 position, 2004
 DAC Member and Chair, Spring, 2004 and Fall 2004
 Attendance at IPCO, Alumni, and other special events for School and IPC including retreats. 2003-2004
 Adjunct Faculty ACS, 2003-ongoing
 Communication Week (ongoing each year)
 Recruiting, NCA, CSCA, University of Central Oklahoma, and other areas, 1999-ongoing
 Member, Instructor Search Committee, 2003, 2002
 Internal co-coordinator for Communication and Culture Seminar, National Communication Association Honors Doctoral Seminar at Bowling Green State University, (beginning 2002) August 2003
 School of Communication Studies Action Committee (with Drs. Edley, Gajjala, & Warren) on developing Mediated Culture(s): E-Journal of Dialogic Communication, Bowling Green State University (November 2001-ongoing).
 Recruiting, Undergraduate Honors Conference, Central States Communication Association, Milwaukee, WI, 2002.
 Recruiting, Trips to Cherokee Nation Headquarters, Northeastern State University, University of Central Oklahoma, Bacone Indian College, 1998-ongoing.
 Participant, Athletic Department, recruiting, 2000.
 Chair, Search Committee, Basic Course Director Search Committee, Department of Interpersonal Communication, 2000-2001.
 Search Committee, Visiting Professor Interpersonal Communication, 2001, 2002.
 Search Committee, Visiting Professor for Interpersonal Communication, 2000.
 Participant, Athletic Department, recruiting, 2000.
 Search Committee, Director of the School of Communication Studies, 1999-2000.
 Graduate Committee, 1996-1998.
 Library Liaison, 1996-1998.
 Director's Evaluation Committee, 1998.
 Merit Committee, 1996-1999.
 Policy Committee, American Culture Studies Program, 1997, 1997-1998.
 Search Committee, Director, ACS Program, 1997.
 IPC Representative for Career Fair, February 3, 1997.
 Speaker, GLIPA, high school journalism organization, 1997.
 Participant in School of Communication Studies Retreat, 1997.
 Search Committee, Basic Course Director, 1996-1997.
 Participant in Department of Interpersonal Communication Retreat, 1996.
 Guest speaker in courses in public relations, organizational communication, intercultural communication, humanistic research methods, and human communication in the School of Communication Studies (ongoing).
 Participant/representative at undergraduate and graduate events for recruiting and information.

B. Arts and Sciences and University

Faculty Coordinator of the Second Annual Native American Unity Council Seminar, November 2004
 Speaker, FCS School, Community Dieticians Program, August 2004
 Faculty Coordinator of the Second Annual Native American Unity Council Seminar, November 2003
 Mentor, Probationary faculty, SPAR/FRC program, 2002-2003
 Faculty Advisor Native American Unity Council Faculty Advisor, 2002-2005
 Speaker, GradSTEP, Interviewing, April 2003
 Member, Planning Committee, BGSU Second Annual Research Conference
 Advisor and trip companion, State Regents Research program (STARS) for promotion of research among undergraduates of color, 2003, University of Miami, Oxford, OH, 2003
 Member, EEOC Committee (2000-January to October 2003)
 Member, HSRB 1999-2003
 Member, the Faculty Senate Ad Hoc Committee Foreign Born Faculty and Faculty of Color (Chair Ewart Skinner) 2003
 Member, Native American Alliance at BGSU, 2003
 Panelist, Partnership for Community Action, "Higher education Partnering with Indigenous Populations in the Midwest," February 2003
 Speaker at the First Annual Native American Unity Council Seminar, November 2002
 Participant in "Choose a Major" and "Major Mania," to present
 Mentor, Probationary faculty, SPAR/FRC program, 2002
 Attendee, American Council on Education, Office of Minorities in Higher Education, October 2001
 Faculty Advisor, Native American Unity Council, 2002-2003.
 Speaker, GradSTEP, Networking and Transition to Career, April 2002.
 Speaker, Grad Chat, a Project Search Lunch on Career Effects and Ethnicity, February 2002.
 Speaker, Native American Celebration, November 2001.
 Member, Equal Opportunity Committee 2001-04.
 Member, Center for Multicultural Students Sub-committee on American Indians, 2001.
 Member, Committee for Development of a Minor in Native American Studies in Ethnic Studies, 2001.
 Teaching Quality Seminars, Bowling Green State University, 2000-2001 (serving on Diversity Committee).
 Guest lecturer, M.A. course in diversity counseling, College of Education, American Indian issues, 2000.
 Guest respondent, HMSLS, SMD 414, Research Methods Poster Session, 1999-2000.
 Participant in Multicultural Student Center activities, 1996-2002.
 Participant in Project Search activities, 1996-2001.
 Chair, Search Committee for Associate Dean of the Graduate College, Fall 1999.
 Member, Human Subjects Review Board 1999-2003.

Advocate, HSRB Committee, advocate for teen offenders and inmates, August 1998-1999.

Member, Graduate Council (1998-2001).

Participant in Ethnic Studies faculty search, 1998.

Participant in visits by Native American artists and scholars on campus, ongoing.

Member, Advisory Committee, Project FEED (Future Educators Enhancing Diversity), 1998-1999, 1997-1998.

Guest speaker, M.A. in Counseling, College of Education, Native American issues, February 1998.

Panelist, Diversity/Multicultural Program, BGSU, Medical College of Ohio, February 1998.

Member, Human Relations Commission, 1998-1999, 1997-1998.

Host, Dr. Carol Kirk Perry, Guest speaker for Institute for the Study of Culture and Society/Department of Ethnic Studies.

Volunteer consultant to Health Benefits Committee (BGSU), 1997.

Member, work group for a Ford Foundation grant on diversity, 1997.

Member, President/Provost's Planning Committee for New Faculty Picnic, Spring/Fall 1997.

Reviewer, national M.A. thesis award, Graduate College, Fall 1996.

C. Professional

1. Journal Reviewer

Editorial Board, International/Intercultural Communication Annual, 2004-2007

Editorial Board, Communication Studies, 2002-2005, Dr. Jim Query, Editor, Loyola (Chicago)

Reviewer, Communication Yearbook, International Communication Association, 2002, Dr. Pamela Kalbfleisch, University of Wyoming.

Reviewer (special issue 2001 health communication), Communication Studies, Dr. Jim Query, Guest Editor, Loyola University.

Ad Hoc Reviewer (named November 1997, 1 manuscript), Management Communication Quarterly, 1997, Dr. Patrice M. Buzzanell, Editor, Northern Illinois University.

Ad Hoc Reviewer, Journal of Communication and Religion, 1991, (2 manuscripts) Dr. Janice Schuetz, Editor, University of New Mexico.

Ad Hoc Reviewer, Women and Communication, 1989-1991, (3 manuscripts) Dr. Sandra Ragan, Editor, University of Oklahoma.

2. National Organizations

Program Reviewer, new M.A. Communication program, East Carolina University, 2004

Program Reviewer, new M.A. program in Global Communications, University of Long Island, Brooklyn, NY, 2002.

- Member, Committee on Committees, NCA, 2004
- Member-at-large, Legislative Assembly (elected), NCA, 2005-2008
- Tenure and Promotion Review, professor, University of New Mexico, 2004
- Reviewer, FWSD, NCA, 2004
- Reviewer, International/Intercultural, NCA, 2004
- Candidate, At-large Candidate, Legislative Assembly, NCA
- Member, Committee on Committees, NCA, 2004
- Legislative Assembly, NCA as past-Chair, Feminist/Women Studies Division, 2003
- Representative to Legislative Council from Feminist and Women Studies Division, National Communication Association, 2003.
- Member, Outstanding Journal Article Award, International Communication Association, 2003
- Ad hoc Committee on the International/Intercultural Communication Division Annual, National Communication Association, 2002
- Representative to Legislative Council from Feminist and Women Studies Division, National Communication Association, 2002.
- Respondent, Top Three Papers, Feminist and Women Studies Division, National Communication Association, 2002.
- Participating author on "Health Communication," in Interdisciplinary Position Papers, National Communication Association, 2002.
- Reviewer, Feminist Women Studies Division, National Communication Association, International Communication Association, 2002.
- Member, Journal Article Award Committee, International Communication Association, 2002.
- Member, Outstanding Journal Article Award, International Communication Association, 2002
- Elected Chair, Feminist and Women Studies Division, National Communication Association, 2001 (planner for 2001 conference).

Member, Advisory Board for Committee on Disabilities for National Communication Association Conferences, 2001-02.

Chair of top papers in Feminist and Women Studies division, National Communication Association, 2001.

1st Vice Chair, Feminist and Women Studies Division, National Communication Association, 2000 (planner of 2001 convention).

Reviewer, Intercultural Communication Division, National Communication Association, 2000.

Reviewer, Organizational Communication Division, National Communication Association, 2000.

Reviewer, Health Communication Division, National Communication Association, 2000.

Reviewer, Feminist Division, National Communication Association, 2000.

Respondent, Feminist and Women Studies Division Competitive Papers, National Communication Association 2000.

2nd Vice Chair, Feminist and Feminist Studies Division, National Communication Association, 1999 (planner of 2001 convention).

Reviewer, Organizational Communication Division, International Communication Association, 2000.

Reviewer, Health Communication Division, Central States Communication Association, 1999.

Reviewer, Feminist and Women's Caucus Division, International Communication Association, 1999.

Chair, Panel for Feminist and Women Studies Division, "Power/gender/race: The reproduction of privilege." National Communication Association, 1999.

Respondent, poster session for Intercultural and Development Communication, International Communication Association, 1999.

Respondent, a panel in Feminist and Women Studies Division, National Communication Association, New York, 1998.

Respondent, a panel in Experiential Learning Division, National Communication Association, New York, 1998.

Secretary, Feminist and Women Studies Division, National Communication Association, 1998 and 1999.

Editor, abstracts of the Organizational Communication Division, International Communication Association Conferences, Montreal, 1997, and Jerusalem, 1998.

Reviewer, Feminist Communication Division, National Communication Association, New York, 1998.

Reviewer, International/Intercultural Communication Division, International Communication Association Conference, Jerusalem, 1998.

Reviewer, Health Communication Division, International Communication Association Conference, Chicago, 1996.

3. Regional Associations

Executive Committee Representative at-large, 2005-2008, Central States Communication Association

Respondent, Competitive Health Communication Papers, Central States Communication, Cleveland, 2004

Reviewer, Health Communication, Central States Communication, Cleveland, 2004

Reviewer, Intercultural Communication, Central States Communication, Cleveland, 2004

Respondent, Clarifying Crossroads: The Importance of Teaching and Researching Diversity in the Basic Course, Central States Communication Association, Omaha, 2003

Participant, Celebrations and Festivals: Public Displays of Ethnicity, Central States Communication Association, Omaha, 2003

Respondent, Colonization of Health in the Workplace, Central States Communication Association, Omaha, 2003

Respondent, International Graduate Students Competitive Paper, Central States Communication Association, Omaha, 2003

Respondent, Undergraduate Student Conference-Competitive Papers in Health Communication, Central States Communication Association, Omaha, 2003

Participant, Graduate Programs in Communication, a panel that discussed graduate school culture, Central States Communication Association, Omaha, 2003

Reviewer, Central States Communication Association Health Communication Interest Group, 2003

Reviewer, Central States Communication Association Intercultural Communication Interest Group, 2003

Reviewer, Central States Communication Association Theory Division, 2002.

Chair, Health Communication Interest Group, planner for 2002, Central States Communication Association, Milwaukee, WI.

Member, Outstanding Young Teacher Award, Central States Communication Association, 2001 and 2002.

2nd Vice Chair, Health Communication Division, 2001, Central States Communication Association.

Dixon, L, & Kinney, J. (2001, April). Family caregivers for patients with dementia: Theoretical, methodological, and personal responses by original researchers to post hoc multiple data analysis, discussion leader and planner for the panel "Family Caregivers for Patients with Dementia: Analysis of Interview Data from Different Perspectives" at the Central States Communication Association, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Co-respondent, Top Three Papers in Communication Theory, Central States Communication Association, April 2000.

Vice Chair, Health Communication Division, Central States Conference (planner for 2002), 2000.

Dixon, L, & Kinney, J. (2001, April). Family caregivers for patients with dementia: Theoretical, methodological, and personal responses by original Researchers to post hoc multiple data analysis, discussion leader and planner for the panel "Family Caregivers for Patients with Dementia: Analysis of Interview Data from Different Perspectives" at the Central States Communication Association, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Facilitator and planner for Graduate Programs on Review, Central States Communication Association, Detroit, 2000.

Chair, Communication Theory Division, Central States Communication Association, program planner for the Central States Communication Association Conference, Chicago, April 1998.

Chair, Intercultural Communication Interest Group, Central States Communication Association, St. Louis, MO, April, 1997.

First Vice Chair, Communication Theory Division for Central States Communication Association, St. Louis, MO, April, 1997.

Co-respondent to Top Three Paper Panel, Intercultural Communication Division, Central States Communication Association, St. Louis, MO, April 1997.

Facilitator for the panel “Prescriptions for positive outcomes: Applying interpersonal theory to improve communication between health care providers and health care recipients,” Central States Communication Association, St. Louis, MO, April 1997.

First Vice Chair, Intercultural Communication Interest Group, Central States Communication Association, program planner for the conference in St. Paul, MN, April 1996.

4. Textbook Reviews

Roxbury Press, intercultural communication text, 2003

Wadsworth Publisher, organizational communication text, 2002

Roxbury Publishers, organizational communication text, 2000.

Wadsworth Publisher, organizational communication text, 1997.

St. Martin’s Press, sociology of medicine text, 1995.

5. Service at Previous Universities:

Indiana University–South Bend
Division of the Arts, Communication Area

IUSB Executive Committee, 1995-1996.

University Faculty Senate, Educational Policies Committee, 1994-1995.

Member, Division of the Arts Space Allocation Committee, 1995.

Member, IUSB Multicultural Director’s Board, 1995.

Search committee, Division of Education, 1995.

Search committee for assistant vice chancellor, Spring and Fall 1994.

- Co-editor of Teaching Notes (1995). (in-house publication, Indiana University–South Bend, Division of Education/IUSB & Teaching Committee Publication, 1995), 4(1,2).
- Author, (1993). “The Basic course: Standardization or entrepreneurship.” Teaching Notes (in-house publication Indiana University–South Bend, Division of Education/IUSB & Teaching Committee publication), 2(2), 1-2.
- Chair, Division of the Arts Student Recruiting Committee (Spring 1994).
- IUSB Teaching Committee, 1992-1995.
- Faculty Associate (mentoring program at IUSB), Spring 1994.
- Team Leader for writing communication curriculum, School Leadership Development I & II, Communication Curriculum Committee, primary author of curriculum for communication in the Masters for secondary administration, Division of Education Lilly Grant, 1993-1995.
- Participant in focus group on goals in general education courses with the chancellor and vice chancellor and others, 1995.
- Faculty Advisor, developed guidelines, forms, and procedures, 1994.
- Author, Communication Area Guidelines for Promotion, Tenure, and Retention Committee standards, 1995 .
- Member, Division of the Arts Equipment Committee, 1993.
- Coordinator with others, “Faculty Seminar and Public Issues Forum” and symposium sponsored by the Division of the Arts and the Communication and Mass Communication Areas, “Gridlock: What is it? and What causes it?” with guest participant Professor Fred R. Harris (formerly U.S. Senator-Oklahoma, and Presidential candidate), University of New Mexico, March 1993.
- Presenter, “An Overview of a Health Communication Project: An Ethnographic Study of Health Provider/Patient Discourse at a University-affiliated Teaching Hospital,” Health Research Group (in-house), 1993.
- Coordinator Native American Students, group project in connection with the visit of Chief Wilma Mankiller (Cherokee) to South Bend, 1995.

University of New Mexico 1991-1992
School of Communication and Journalism:

- Committee for Native American Issues, 1992.
- Advising for undergraduate and graduate students, 1991-1992.
- Member, Curriculum Committee for a Ph.D. program in intercultural communication, 1991-1992.
- Speaker, Native American Studies Center, 1992.
- Consultant, Center for Student Counseling, training video for intercultural counseling for Native Americans, 1992.
- Program developer, pediatric residents’ intercultural training program, Center for Indian Youth Program Development (CIYPD), 1991-1992.
- Program developer, intercultural communication teaching seminars, Bureau of Indian Affairs Teacher Training, CIYPD, 1991-1992.
- Consultant, anti-violence grant, CIYPD, 1992.
- Presenter and developer, intercultural health communication seminars, Indian Children’s Programs, Bureau of Indian Affairs Health Services, 1992.

Presenter, Health Research Day, poster presentation of health communication research as defined by cultural differences, Department of Pediatrics, School of Medicine, University of New Mexico, 1992.

Co-planner and program presenter, Hopi Tribe Bureau of Indian Affairs Schools (students and teachers) with Dr. Sally Davis (director) and Ken Hunt (assistant director) of the Center for Indian Youth Program Development, Keames Canyon, AZ, 1991.

Service at University of Oklahoma
Department of Communication:

Visiting member, American Indian Resource Committee, 1990-1991.

Affiliate faculty member, Women Studies Program, 1990-1992.

Developer of a program for minority recruiting, 1990.

Author of all-student recruiting brochure, 1990.

Director (co-director and assistant), International Teaching Assistant Seminar, University of Oklahoma's Instructional Development Program, 6-day training for 30-50 international students from several different countries in cultural adaptation, instructional skills, and language improvement, Norman, OK, 1988-1991.

Presenter, communication skills seminar, University of Oklahoma staff in-service, Norman, OK, February 1990.

Facilitator, Norman Chamber of Commerce Retreat organized by the Department of Communication, University of Oklahoma, Norman, OK, 1988.

Community Service/Outreach

Nation-centered participatory activities with the Cherokee Nation, Tahlequah, OK, 1986-ongoing (including recruiting for BGSU)

Intercultural Presentation, WIC Program of Lucas County, September 2004

Native Americans and Dietetic Culture, School of Family and Consumer Science, August 2004

Member, Town and Gown Club, Bowling Green, Ohio 2002-ongoing

Member, Advisory Board, Northwest Ohio Alzheimer's Association, 2002-2005

Various participatory activities with the Cherokee Nation, Tahlequah, OK, 1986-ongoing

Speaker, Cherokee Nation, Local Civic Club, 2003

Speaker, Northwest Technical College, Lima, OH, 2000.

Volunteer, Cherokee Nation Election, 1999.

Participant, political party, Wood County, Ohio, 1998-99.

Volunteer, congressional race, Wood County, various times

Member, YWCA Nomination Committee and Program Committee, YWCA's Annual Tribute to Women, South Bend, IN, 1994, 1995, 1996.

Facilitator for a reception honoring Chief Wilma Mankiller, Cherokee Nation, liaison with the Pokagon Band of the Potawatomi, while Chief Mankiller was in South Bend to speak at the YWCA Annual Tribute to Women, South Bend, IN, April 1993.

- Guest speaker, Oklahoma Delegation to the 1992 Democratic National Convention on election year issues related to Native Americans, New York, July 1992.
- Volunteer, Democratic National Convention, Hilary Clinton's headquarters; Clinton for President Headquarters.
- Public relations coordinator (newspaper coverage), Purcell Arts Festival, Purcell, Oklahoma, 1984-1987.
- Reviewer, Elizabethtown drama events (newspaper), Elizabethtown, KY, 1881-1984.

XII. CONSULTING

- Keynote Address (with Paul M. Shaver), Indiana State Continuity of Care Conference, South Bend, IN, 1996.
- Presenter, communication skills seminars, University of Oklahoma College of Continuing Education, private, state, and federal organizations, Norman, OK, 1988-1991.
- Co-director and trainer with Dr. Jan Schuetz, New Mexico Judicial Training for Court Clerks Educational Project, Institute of Public Law, Albuquerque, NM, March and April 1992.
- Intercultural/management/organizational consultant and trainer (federal, state, and private organizations), COMM/CONSULT Associates, Albuquerque, NM, 1991-1992, South Bend, IN, 1992 .
- Presenter and program developer, intercultural health communication seminars, New Mexico Indian Health Service State Meeting for Nutritionists, Albuquerque, NM, September 1991.
- Intercultural/management/organizational consultant and trainer (federal, state, and private organizations), University of Oklahoma Continuing Education and privately, Norman and Oklahoma City, OK, 1988-1991.
- Communication consultant on a grant, Through Our Grandmother's Eyes, a project studying the living history of women in Oklahoma, working with Dr. Vivien Ng, Professor of History, University of Oklahoma, and others, ongoing exhibition in Oklahoma at public schools and libraries, a duplicate of the project displayed in the permanent oral history State Oklahoma Library and Museum System, Norman, OK, 1988-1989.
- Consultant to a federal agency with Dr. L. Brooks Hill and Dr. Roger Babich, Oklahoma City, OK, Spring 1988.
- Presenter, communication skills seminar, Kentucky State Convention for International Professional Secretaries, Bowling Green, KY, May 1984

XIII. MEMBERSHIP IN PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

National Communication Association.
Central States Communication Association.
International Association of Intercultural Communication Studies.
International Communication Association
Organization for the Study of Communication, Language, and Gender
Cherokee Nation, Tahlequah, Oklahoma.

XIV. HONORS AND AWARDS

Faculty Improvement Leave, Office of the Provost, "The Relationship between Cherokee Language and Culture, Spring 2005.

Bowling Green State University Jerome Library 2000 Friends, Authors, and Artists recognition for "The Cultural Perspective of a Public Health Facility for Oklahoma American Indians: Architectural Changes as Organizational Rhetoric," November 2000.

Top Three Paper ("Patterns of Intra-ethnic and Inter-ethnic Communication among American Indians in Oklahoma," Y. Kim, P. Lujan, & L. Dixon), International and Intercultural Communication Division, National Communication Association, New York, November 1998.

Alumni Summer Research Probationary Faculty Fellowship, Bowling Green State University, 1997.

Top Three Paper ("I Can Walk Both Ways: Identity Integration of American Indians in Oklahoma," Y. Kim, P. Lujan, & L. Dixon Shaver), Intercultural and Developmental Communication Division, International Communication Association, Chicago, May 1996.

Top Three Student Papers ("A Case Research: The Socialization Process of an Employee Entering a State Bureaucracy, L. Dixon Glenn), Organizational Communication Division, Speech Communication Association, 1989.

Minority Scholar's Research Award, Regents for the University of Oklahoma, 1988.

Outstanding Teaching Award, Department of Communication, University of Oklahoma, 1988.

Minority Doctoral Study Award Grant, Oklahoma Regents for Higher Education, 1987-1989.